

Professional Indemnity Insurance Proposal Form Valuers

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with any insurer, you have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to disclose to the insurer every matter you know or could reasonably be expected to know to be a matter relevant to the decision of the insurer whether to accept the risk and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of insurance.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of a matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurers;
- that is common knowledge;
- that the insurers know or, in the ordinary course of business as insurers, ought to know; or
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by the insurers.

The requirement of full and frank disclosure of anything which may be material to the risk for which you seek cover (for example, claims, whether founded or unfounded), is of the utmost importance with this type of insurance.

If you do not understand any part of this Proposal Form, seek advice from your professional insurance adviser, as you will be bound by your answers and any of the information provided by you.

Non-Disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the insurer may be entitled to reduce their liability under the contract in respect of a claim. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

Claims Made & Notified Insurance

This insurance is written on a "claims made and notified" basis. This means that the insurer indemnifies you for Claims (as defined) that are made against you during the period of insurance and notified to the Insurer during the period of insurance. The policy does not provide cover for any claims made against you during the period of insurance if at any time prior to commencement of the period of insurance you became aware of facts which might give rise to those Claims being made against you.

Section 40(3) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 provides that where you gave notice in writing to the insurer of any facts that might give rise to a Claim against you as soon as reasonably practical after you become aware of those facts, but before the expiry of the period of insurance, the insurer cannot refuse to pay a Claim which arises out of those facts, when made, because it was made after the period of insurance had expired.

The policy does not cover your civil liability for breach of professional duty arising from any claim:

- first made prior to the inception of the Policy;
 - directly or indirectly based upon, or attributable to, or in consequence of, any incident, occurrence, fact or matter which you knew or ought or should have reasonably known, had the potential to give rise to a claim under the Policy; or
 - directly or indirectly based upon, or attributable to, or in consequence of any fact, matter, circumstance or occurrence which has been notified under any other insurance attaching prior to the inception date of the Policy.

Retroactive Date

The proposed insurance may be limited by a retroactive date. If so, the policy will not cover any claims or circumstances arising from any events, omissions or conduct prior to such retroactive date.

Subrogation

Where you have prejudiced the insurer's rights to recover a loss from another party, this may have the effect of excluding or limiting the insurers liability in respect of that loss.

Change in Risk or Circumstances

You should advise the insurer(s) as soon as practicable of any material change in your business activities (as disclosed in the Proposal Form).

Privacy

New privacy legislation took effect on 21st December 2001. The legislation regulates the way private sector organizations can collect, use, keep, secure and disclose personal information. We have developed a privacy policy that explains what sort of personal information we hold about you and what we do with that information. Please refer to our website for a copy of our Privacy Statement.

Additional Notes

If there is insufficient space to adequately complete your answers, please provide further details on your letterhead, clearly identifying the question referenced.
